Shine with Divine Wisdom: Excel in Your Board Exams – A Personal Letter from the Principal to the Paulites

Dear Students,

You stand at a pivotal moment, ready to embrace the Board Examinations that your years of preparation have shaped. Walk into the exam hall with our unwavering faith in your radiant potential.

Cast aside any shadows of anxiety; instead, channel your energy into focused study. Let your innate brilliance, heartfelt character, steadfast determination, and gentle perseverance shine brightly.

"For the Lord gives wisdom; from his mouth come knowledge and understanding" (Proverbs 2:6). May He bless you, dear children, with His divine wisdom, clarity of mind, calm hearts, and strength to excel. As you sit for your exams, I invoke God's special grace upon each of you - may His peace guard your thoughts, His insight light your answers, and His favor crown your devoted efforts with triumphant success and joy.

Wishing you the very best, my dear ones.

With affectionate prayers and heartfelt blessings,

Fr Antony Fernandes

Principal
